DENY RED PAINT ESCAPADE. Columbia Freshmen Disclaim Decoration of Engineering Building.

Columbia, Mo., March 25.—The freshman class of the academy department of Missouri University at a meeting held yesterday denied that any members of their class had been implicated in the recent painting of the engineering building.

Several nights ago the engineering building was painted red and the names "Academic" conspicuously painted on the building and walks in front of the building. The entire engineering department swore vengeance on the guilty parties, and as the engineers not only outnumber the other classes are now busy denying the charge.

The freshmen say it was done by some one to get the class into trouble. The senior academic class of the University have decided to have a class breakfast in a few days.

The factuity of Missouri Agricultural college have offered gold and silver medals for the best essays on stock judging and dairying. Any student in the Agricultural College has the right to enter the contest. Professors Mumford and Harper will act as judges.

Thursday, June 4.

Arrangements are now in progress for the reception of the executive, and a movement already has been started to have the President inaugurate the building.

According to the plans outlined for President Roosevelt's trip he will spend four hours in Springfield, arriving here at 10 a.m. and remaining until 2 p.m. State officials. Federal officers, city authorities and representatives of the Business Men's Association will unite in the arrangements for the reception to be accorded the city's guest.

the reception to be accorded the city's guest.

If the Armory is dedicated that day, as now appears likely, President Roosevelt will be called upon to make a short dedicatory address and other exercises appropriate to the occasion will be arranged. It is likely that a street demonstration will be made, participated in by military and civic organizations.

Vouwie was at the Relay Station early yesterday morning when the train arrived from which Miss Truesdale alighted. He escorted her to the marriage license office, where the couple secured the license, and then they repaired to the residence of the Reverend John F. Harmon, pastor of the Summit Avenue Methodist Church, where they were married.

The couple departed as soon after their marriage as possible and were uncommunicative to the minister and the Marriage License Clerk.

It was learned, however, that they met in East St. Louls by appointment, and that the marriage was to be kept a secret.

The couple married at Believille were L.S. Plogman of Baltimore, Md., and Miss Loon Maxwell of Padvedh, Ky. They appeared to be in a hurry to get married and did not desire to answer any questions concerning their personality or their reasons for coming to Believille. Justice of the Peace Wangelin performed the ceremony.

The case occupied the greater portion of two days, and the jury brought in a verdict for the plaintiff after deliberating about ten minutes.

Grand Jury Indictment Pollows Application for Increase of Pension. pileation for Increase of Pension.

Jonathan McGee, a well-known resident of Jerseiville, was arrested Tuesday night by a Deputy United States Marshal and taken to Springfield to answer an indictment for perjury, returned by the Grand Jury for the United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois.

The indictment was returned ten days ago while the Grand Jury was in session of McGee is a veteran of the Civil War, and as such has been drawing a pension of $12 a month for several years. The amount was the limit that is allowed for partial disability.

Recently McGee took steps to have the pension increased, and in connection with the application for an increase, submitted affidavits in regard to his service in the war. The Indictment for perjury grew out of the affidavits submitted to the Government.

McGee was well known in Jersey County and was a candidate for the nomination for Sheriff last year.

HAIR CUT ON SATURDAY WILL COST AN EXTRA DIME

Belleville Barbers Establish a New Schedule of Prices and Citizens Are Complaining.

A hair cut in Believille on Saturday after April 1 will mean an increase of 10 cents in the price now charged for the operation. This was decided on at a meeting of the Believille Barbers Union Tuesday night.

There is a difference of colunton among citizens of Believille on the advisability of the action of the barbers. Yesterday the majority seemed to feel that the oarbers were doing a great injustice to those who were unable to go to a barber shop on any other day than Saturday, as the barber shops do not keep open on Sundays.

From the barber's standpoint, haircutting From the barber's standpoint, haircutting the barbers assert, while one journeyman is cutting a single crop of hair, that same journeyman could shave half a dozen customers, who are fuming and fretting because of the wait they have been put to by the man who wants his hair cut. The barbers say that shaving is the lucrative part of the barber business, and since recent heavy Saturday rushes for haircuts have set in many of their patrons have learned to shave themselves.

WALKER WHITESIDE.

Yorick is pedantically tame. Then comes Ophelia's funeral party, and the Prince throws off the cloak of monotony. He de-fies Lacries, and the way he does it calls for and gets instant appreciation. Here we have another example of the Whiteside temperament. There is a ready gesture for every word, the calcium burns at both ends and Hamlet, too, is himself again.

It is not necessary to speak of the cast. With the exception of Miss Wolstan's Ophelia and the first grave digger, played by Mr. Chester, and the Quren of Miss Josephine Morse, the company does not call for comment. Miss Morse's Queen is a netably sood characterization. tably good characterization. .

BECOMING

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other dis-
